

Entertainment, Music, Media, & Sports

Every artist needs a business advisor who sees the big picture, but can manage the details.

Our firm has been working with professional artists and entertainers since 1979. We tailor our services to the specialized needs of musicians, bands, actors, songwriters, theatre troupes, producers, and directors. Working closely with your management team and attorneys, we help sort out the chaos of touring, monitor and manage your specialized tax needs, and ensure that your financial health is secure.

Our services include:

- Business management services
- Cash management
- Estate and personal financial planning
- Insurance evaluations
- Royalty administration
- Royalty audits
- Music, film, and television audits
- Tax compliance & planning
- Tax withholding negotiations with government agencies
- Foreign tax assistance
- Tour accounting