

Food Services

We bring order to your business structure, so you can focus on the presentation.

As longtime advisors to the hospitality and food service industry, we understand the unique issues you're faced with every day - whether you're an independent grocer, caterer, or distributor. Our professionals closely monitor accounting rules and tax law changes affecting your industry, and work with clients to benchmark performance and identify opportunities for improvement. Making sure your business is structured to run efficiently and profitably is our first goal. Our second goal is to help you reach your business and personal financial goals sooner.

We work with caterers and party planners, specialty markets, and food stores, and wholesale and retail bakers and food purveyors.

Our services include:

- Business valuation
- Food and beverage cost analysis
- Compilations and reviews
- Industry benchmarking
- Internal controls assessment
- Inventory management
- Lease negotiations
- System installation and maintenance
- Tax planning and compliance
