“Take the risk or lose the chance.”

Annette Tolentino is an audit director with over 10 years of experience in public accounting. She oversees review and audit engagements in the technology and financial services industries.

EXPERIENCE

Annette offers her clients guidance on proper accounting treatment including new accounting updates affecting their business and internal control processes. She helps her clients navigate through complex accounting issues and ensures accuracy and clarity is reflected on the financial statements.

Prior to joining Citrin Cooperman in 2015, Annette was a manager in the audit and accounting practice at a mid-size regional firm, where she focused on audits of technology, broker-dealers, management companies, and employee benefit plans.
