My passion is helping companies make the transition to becoming data-driven and obsessed with performance.

Dominic DiBernardo is a partner in the firm's Strategy and Business Transformation Practice with 15 years of experience in financial planning and analysis (FP&A). Dom has a passion for helping companies make the transition to a data-driven culture, guiding them through digital transformation leading to both operational efficiency and substantial bottom-line results.

EXPERIENCE

Working with a select group of corporate performance management software vendors, including Vena, Dominic guides his clients through simplifying their financial processes and automating tedious tasks, putting efficiencies in place to help them maximize their potential and reach their financial goals.

Prior to joining Citrin Cooperman, Dominic was the founder and managing principal of The DB Group, a management and implementation consultancy firm. Before founding The DB Group, he held the role of Chief Business Intelligence Officer at Cumming Corporation, managing both finance and IT functions.
