"I receive great satisfaction from helping others and have immense interest in technology; a career in cybersecurity provides an exciting opportunity for combining the two."

Kevin Ricci is a principal with more than 20 years of experience in the information technology field. Previously, he served as director of information technology and co-leader of the cybersecurity practice at LGC+D, which joined Citrin Cooperman in 2016.

EXPERIENCE

As part of the firm's Technology and Risk Advisory Consulting (TRAC) team, Kevin offers clients specialized technology expertise and cybersecurity solutions, including consulting, IT auditing, Sarbanes-Oxley IT support, security training, project management, database development, data analysis, and compliance services including PCI DSS and HIPAA.

HONORS & AWARDS

Kevin was featured in Providence Business News (PBN) as a recipient of the "40 Under Forty" awards, which recognizes the next generation of business community leaders.

AFFILIATIONS

Kevin is an active member of several technology-related resource groups, including the FBI's Infragard program and the Rhode Island chapter of ISACA. Kevin is involved in volunteer and fundraising programs for both The Tomorrow Fund and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and previously served as a board member for The Autism Project at Gateway Healthcare.
