“Accounting is more than just crunching numbers. It’s providing insight and advice based on those figures, as well as sharing my experience gained by having served other clients who worked through similar challenges.”

Mary Paladino oversees the audit and assurance services practice in the firm’s White Plains, NY office. She brings more than 25 years of experience providing audit, accounting, and business consulting services to both public and private clients in a diverse range of industries, including manufacturing & distribution, healthcare, technology, and not-for-profit.

EXPERIENCE

Mary provides professional services ranging from development stage issues to highly complex audit and financial reporting requirements. Mary’s financial reporting experience includes extensive reporting under International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Mary serves on the firm’s Audit and Attest Committee, as well as a number of the firm’s practice development committees.

Prior to joining Citrin Cooperman, Mary worked at a Big Four accounting firm providing audit and business consulting services to public and private multi-national clients in a variety of industries. Through Mary’s experience auditing public companies, she possesses a comprehensive understanding of entity and process level controls, and effective corporate governance policies that are scalable to the size of any business. Mary uses this expertise routinely to help her client’s improve sustainability and profitability.
