"I take a personal approach with each client, ensuring that they make the smartest financial decisions to best meet both their business and personal goals."

Michael Feller is a partner with more 30 years of experience in accounting, tax, and business consulting. He works with a diverse range of clients, including high net worth individuals and closely held businesses such as medical and dental practices, law firms, and home furnishings retailers. He also serves clients in the areas of real estate, entertainment, and sports.

EXPERIENCE

Previously, Michael was a partner at Mendelsohn Kary Bell & Natoli, LLP, which joined Citrin Cooperman in 2007. Prior to that, he was a senior tax specialist at a Big Four international firm.

As an advisor, Michael specializes in helping clients enhance their profitability, minimize their income taxes, and plan for the future. He provides a wide array of guidance in the areas of tax compliance, deferrals, planning, and financial statement presentation.

For high net worth individuals, Michael helps navigate the complexities of the current tax laws. He also develops various planning opportunities and retirement strategies as part of his well-rounded approach.
