

CITRIN COOPERMAN®
Accountants and Advisors

TRANSACTION SPECIALTY SOLUTIONS

Focused on Understanding Value

Understanding the value of your business and its components, whether it be for gifting, sale or litigation, requires the support and guidance of an experienced team of individuals who understand you and your business. Having the right professionals by your side early in the process can make the difference between success and what if...

How Citrin Cooperman Can Help

Citrin Cooperman's partner-led transaction specialty service teams work with you and your advisors to devise strategies and actions that will help you navigate the

Related Practices

Litigation and Dispute Advisory Services
Transaction Advisory Services
Valuation Advisory Services

intricacies and complexities of a contemplated transaction or litigation. Our service professionals use their experience with valuation, forensics, litigation support, and transaction advisory services to give you the knowledge and practical insights you need in your decision making process and the support and guidance critical to the execution of your strategies and actions.